BOOK SYNOPSIS

Heisman winner. Member of the National Championship team. NFL Rookie of the Year. Quarterback Colin OConnor knows hes become the ultimate romance novel cliché: all the success hes ever dreamed of but nobody to share it with. Too bad its not as simple as asking out the next girl who intrigues him - because the next girl to intrigue him probably wont be a girl at all. Unexpectedly, the solution comes in one neat package: Nick Wheeler, lead journalist for a leading sports and pop culture blog. Hired by Colins team, Nick comes to Miami to shine a spotlight on the NFLs most private quarterback. The heat in Miami rises when Nick discovers that Colin is nothing like the hollow personality he pretends to be in interviews and hes even hotter in person than on his Sports Illustrated cover. Nick knows this is the story of his career, and after spending his teenage years as a bullied, closeted teen, it hits very close to home. What he needs is to help Colin share his story while keeping their growing relationship from boiling over in the press, but what he wants is to tell the world.
